HES Reflections

By Debbie Schluckebier

November 21, 6:30 pm

I always look forward to fall - crisp, cool days, walking on leaf covered paths, holiday time with family and friends, and the CWSG Holiday Exhibition and Sale HES). For many years before I joined the Guild, my fall ritual was attending the Friday night opening of the sale with my friends. We would be there before the doors opened, excited to see what treasures were inside. Little did I know that one day I would be a participant!

This is the 28th year of the HES, and at the November meeting we will take time to reflect on this signature Guild event that showcases the many talented artists and diverse fiber arts of the Guild. Much more than a sale, the exhibition draws people from all over to admire the items, watch demonstrations, try their hand at the demonstration loom, and yes, to shop. It takes a village to put this on every year. This meeting is for everyone - not just for participants. If you haven't been to the Exhibition, come and learn what it's all about. If you are a leader, participant, demonstrator, or helper, come and reflect on a job well done.

The November meeting is at the Rock Quarry House, at Rock Quarry Park 2002 Grindstone Parkway. A park map is attached.

President's Corner

Each November, the much-anticipated Holiday Exhibition and Sale is foremost in everyone's mind. It is an event that truly draws us together as a community, whether we participate as sellers, buyers, demonstrators or volunteers.

It's another way we interact with greater mid-Missouri and show our stuff to the public. It's like the Best of the Best of our Show-and-Tell!

With that in mind, we'd like to encourage all guild members to attend the sale. Also, if you can, please step forward and volunteer. Help is always needed—and appreciated.

Contact Jean Williams (573-445-0728 or jeanweaves@gmail.com) or Mariea Caruthers (573-445-5473 or grmacrthrs@gmail.com) if you have a few hours to spare on Nov. 10, 11 or 12.

After the sale, be sure to attend our monthly meeting to hear sale participants share their experiences as makers and sellers. If you've been to or participated in other guild sale in the area, come share your impressions of how others stage their events.

We'll also have a demonstration on how to use the Guild's new website (cwsghome.org).

PLEASE NOTE: Our November meeting will be held at a different location. It will be at the Rock Quarry House in Rock Quarry Park at 2002 Grindstone Parkway. The ARC is undergoing cleaning during Thanksgiving week and is therefore closed.

Debbie Prost and Maggie Walter, co-presidents debbieprost@gmail.com and waltermr@missouri.edu

Daytime CWSG Group

Announcing a new monthly daytime CWSG gathering! This group is for those who aren't able to attend the regular evening meetings, as well as anyone who would enjoy another opportunity to hang out with fiber friends in an informal setting. This will not be a business meeting. If you're interested, please join us to plan our meetings and activities this year.

We'll definitely have show 'n tell, so bring anything you'd like to show as well as a portable project to work on.

November meeting is set for the first Tuesday at the Daniel Boone Regional Library (DBRL) in Columbia. We'll try to standardize a meeting time and place once we see how many people are interested and what works best for the group.

Funding Assistance

Thanks to a generous donation by long-time guild member Verna Wulfekammer, the Verna Wulfekammer Memorial Trust Fund was set up to provide support for fiber-related educational activities for the benefit of guild members and other artists. The trustees meet four times a year to appropriate funds to applicants.

For information or applications, contact 2017-2018 Wulfekammer Trustees: Susan Burpo – Correspondent (2017-18); Jeni Donohue – Secretary (2017-2020); Rebecca Bergfield (2016-2019)

Applications can also be obtained at the Guild Library housed at Access Arts or electronically by requesting them from one of the trustees: susanburpo@msn.com; KJDONO@centurylink.net; or dancingfiber@gmail.com. The completed application may then be sent to the three trustees electronically.

Educational Scholarship Fund

This fund honors Lois Watkins, Helen Carter, and Helen Solter, who were active and important long-time members of the Guild. This memorial fund provides funding for scholarship for guild members to attend fiber-related activities. For information and applications, contact current administrators, Shelda Eggers, Meg Bartlett, or Bex Oliger, or pick up an application at the guild library housed at Access Arts.

Youth Fiber Arts

The Youth Fiber Arts Exhibition Steering Committee has asked each study group to come up with at least two kits that can be given out as prizes to the winners at the YFAE. If you have a plan for doing this, please continue. If you are not sure about setting up a kit, please just bring items that study group members are ready to donate to a guild meeting. This includes fiber, material, equipment such as knitting needles or crochet hooks, etc., and anything else that might be useful. Think of it as donating your stash to a future fiber artist/guild member!

The steering committee is going to collect these items up and create kits ourselves. (Some members are really looking forward to this. Who are we to crush their dreams?)

So please, go through your stash, collect items, and bring them to a meeting. One of the steering committee members will collect them until we get ready to put kits together. If you have any suggestions for kits, please let us know. Ideas are always appreciated.

Happy Creativity
Rebecca

Events that Might Interest You

Ozark Fiber Fling 2017 – November 3-4 at the Meramec Baptist Retreat Center in Steelville, MO (see flyer at the end of this newsletter).

The Kansas City Fiber and Weavers Guilds invite you to our 34th Creative Hand Show and Sale, November 17 and 18th in Shawnee, Kansas. (A copy of the promotional postcard is available – just email Tammy Mann, your fearless Tie-Up editor!) And we would love to send you actual postcards if you want them to share with your fellow guild members.

Our show may not be just down the street but we think this is a very special event for fiber enthusiasts like you. Think ROAD TRIP. We will have over 60 artists in this juried sale and the scope of our products is mind-boggling. Ok, I'm bragging but check out our website (<http://www.creativehandkc.org/>) and see for yourself.

We want to welcome you. When you come to the show please let one of our members know someone from your guild is there so we can recognize you. And let us know about your events too so we can promote them to our guild members. Guilds should stick together. Need ideas for other places to visit while you are in town, we'll try and help with that as well.

We are thrilled to bring John Mullarkey to Columbia May 5-6 for a tablet weaving workshop. John is a highly sought after instructor and teaches all over the country, including 2018 Convergence. If you've wanted to try weaving but don't have room for a loom, tablet weaving is a great way to get started. See the attached flyer for more information.

The next Midwest Weavers' Conference will be:
"Uncommon Threads" Grinnell, Iowa
June 20-22, 2019

Artwork by CWSG Fiber Arts Study Group members, Amy Schomaker, Jennifer Wax, Robin Wingo and Leandra Spangler will be shown in FIBER SQUARED, a Missouri Fiber Artists sponsored exhibition at The Foundry Arts Centre, Ameristar Gallery, 520 N Main, St. Charles, MO 63301. QUILT NATIONAL will be featured in the main gallery at the same time, October 6 thru December 1, 2017. The Fiber Arts Study Group plans a "road trip" on October 11, 2017 to The Foundry Arts Centre in St. Charles. A facilitator is still needed to coordinate this activity.
